Jerone is a highly-skilled singer and entertainer who has been entertaining the audience by putting smiles on faces, warming people's hearts, igniting song in the soul, and inspiring people to get up and move! His background in music takes him deep from Texas to the Hollywood music industry and back again. Along the journey, he has developed skills in event management, event planning, singing, television, music production, theatre production, songwriting, recording, festivals, interpersonal skills, acting, and voice-overs.

Jerone is available to perform for a variety of events from weddings to wineries, birthday parties to corporate events, singing in your film to singing aboard your ship! He delights in entertaining your audience!
